

MEZZO

She is no placebo
She's so real
She singing like Mezzo
In my ear (x2)

Come on girl, lets take our time, lets slow it down
Nobody needs to get hurt, or lost in this vast town
Of Vienne, back then, saw you sad, saw your frown
Wanna be your king, you my queen, giving you my crown
Now you're brave, you're kind, you even changed my mind
In my head, heavy wind, heavy rain, heavy grind
Unconfined, of my thoughts, of my self, i was blind
Til you appeared in my spotlight, you was sun that always shined
Now i survived, so i can hear you sing
I feel revived, swimming in thermal spring
Of love, passion, tender, care, all in air, its surreal
So unfair, wish i dare myself to tell her how i feel
But is this reality i wanna have, or just another affair
Do i wanna appear in her eyes like someone smoother
Possibility of winning her heart? Low. But im aware
In her world i might be one of million storm troopers
Yuh, she is no placebo
She been in my mind, anywhere, everywhere i go
That girl be one of reasons i have this kind of flow
In my own vision she is purest dove, while i am someone slow
Now things seem a lil difficult from day ongoing
A missed opportunity to tell her name what im doing
Like where im from? Why im so dumb
I fumbled hard, living rest of life knowing that imma scum

She is no placebo
She's so real
She singing like Mezzo
In my ear (x2)

Kicking back in my thoughts wonder alone in my bed
Remembering that day when i had a chance to say what i said
I didn't say what i said, i never had
A chance was there but i missed the bullseye on red
And now, i might cry
Cause she been too long in my mind
And now, i might die
Cause she gone in a wave of foreign that i could never find
And i get the game, i could live with many other lives
But in all of them id fell in love with same one all the times
Conviction of hopeless romance, serves my crimes
When love isn't fed off the spoon I learned to lick it off knives
Yuh - She is no placebo
She been in my mind, anywhere, everywhere i go
Now im walking away, while this boat is flowing
Knowing that ill have to part away, and keep on going

She is no placebo
She's so real
She singing like Mezzo
In my ear
She is no placebo
She's so real
She singing like Mezzo
But she doesn't know i exist
